

ELECTIONS

President

Role Description

Contract

- Full-time job for a 12 month fixed term from 1st July 2026
- £25,804 salary (subject to cost of living increase on 1st August 2026)
- 9am - 5pm Monday - Friday, with work outside of these hours expected

What's in it for you?

- Full training and personal development opportunities
- Leadership experience for your CV
- A chance to make real positive change at the University of Chester
- A graduate job like no other!

Important qualities you need

- Passionate about the issues that students face
- Friendly, welcoming, positive and engaging
- Comfortable talking to students and staff, including during meetings
- Good at problem-solving and adapting
- Willing to get stuck into new things
- Innovative, decisive, and has initiative
- Actively inclusive, responsible, and reliable
- Comfortable presenting and appearing on camera
- Have an interest in governance, the Charity Act, and policy

As President, you will:

- Represent students and CSU within the University and externally
- Chair the Board of Trustees
- Build relationships with key University stakeholders, including the senior leadership team
- Represent students to the University on relevant issues, to ensure positive change
- Attend and actively engage in senior University committees, including University Council and Senate, including become a Governor of the University
- Encourage student participation in the democratic processes of CSU
- Maintain accountability to the Union Assembly, sharing regular reports
- Chair the Liberation subcommittee
- Attend student disciplinary and professional suitability panels to provide a student voice
- Champion the work of the Officers and CSU
- Ensure the Officers are acting as a cohesive team
- Regularly engage with students and seek their feedback across all sites
- Work closely with CSU staff on campaigns and research that improves students' overall experience
- Help promote CSU's services and offerings to students across all campuses
- Align your work with CSU's values
- Create opportunities for students to get involved and deliver on students' priorities

ELECTIONS

Vice President Education Role Description

Contract

- Full-time job for a 12 month fixed term from 1st July 2026
- £25,804 salary (subject to cost of living increase on 1st August 2026)
- 9am - 5pm Monday - Friday, with work outside of these hours expected

What's in it for you?

- Full training and personal development opportunities
- Leadership experience for your CV
- A chance to make real positive change at the University of Chester
- A graduate job like no other!

Important qualities you need

- Passionate about the issues that students face
- Friendly, welcoming, positive and engaging
- Comfortable talking to students and staff, including during meetings
- Good at problem-solving and adapting
- Willing to get stuck into new things
- Innovative, decisive, and has initiative
- Actively inclusive, responsible, and reliable
- Comfortable presenting and appearing on camera

As Vice President Education, you will:

- Represent and champion the needs of all students on academic matters
- Be the primary point of contact for academic schools/divisions and work collaboratively to enhance students' academic experience
- Ensure postgraduate students are represented and included and their academic experience improved
- Champion the Student Voice system, working closely with representatives and CSU staff to ensure the student voice is heard and acted upon
- Attend student disciplinary and professional suitability panels to provide a student voice
- Work closely with CSU staff on campaigns and research that improves students' academic experience
- Encourage participation in the democratic processes of CSU
- Maintain accountability to Union Assembly, sharing regular reports
- Chair the Education subcommittee
- Champion the work of the Officers and CSU
- Maintain close links with University departments that directly support the academic experience
- Align your work with CSU's values
- Create opportunities for students to get involved and deliver on students' priorities

ELECTIONS

Vice President Student Life Role Description

Contract

- Full-time job for a 12 month fixed term from 1st July 2026
- £25,804 salary (subject to cost of living increase on 1st August 2026)
- 9am - 5pm Monday - Friday, with work outside of these hours expected

What's in it for you?

- Full training and personal development opportunities
- Leadership experience for your CV
- A chance to make real positive change at the University of Chester
- A graduate job like no other!

Important qualities you need

- Passionate about the issues that students face
- Friendly, welcoming, positive and engaging
- Comfortable talking to students and staff, including during meetings
- Good at problem-solving and adapting
- Willing to get stuck into new things
- Innovative, decisive, and has initiative
- Actively inclusive, responsible, and reliable
- Comfortable presenting and appearing on camera

As Vice President Student Life, you will:

- Represent and champion the needs of students across the different sites relating to their wellbeing and extra-curricular activities
- Be the primary point of contact for University support services and extra-curricular activities, including sports
- Champion societies and their leaders, working closely with committees and CSU staff to create activities that add value to the student experience
- Attend student disciplinary and professional suitability panels to provide a student voice
- Work closely with CSU staff on campaigns and research that improves students' wellbeing and extra-curricular student experience
- Encourage participation in the democratic processes of the Union
- Maintain accountability to Union Assembly, sharing regular reports
- Chair the Student Life subcommittee
- Be the face of Welcome and Induction
- Champion the work of the Officers and CSU
- Support students' innovation, making positive change in their communities
- Align your work with CSU's values
- Create opportunities for students to get involved and deliver on students' priorities

